BIA/OC Selects Deserving Students to Receive Prestigious Dale & Bea Stuard College Scholarship

Irvine, CA., - In the sixth year of the Dale and Bea Stuard National Housing Endowment Education Fund, students pursuing future studies in the homebuilding industry received $20,000 grant money.

Selection is based on construction industry related goals, academic performance, and financial need. After careful application review by BIA/OC members and education representatives, 18 students from were awarded anywhere from $500-$3,000 toward their choice of academic institution.

Dale Stuard, who is the past chairman of the National Housing Endowment of the NAHB (NHE) and former president of the Building Industry Association, Orange County Chapter (BIA/OC), and his wife, Bea, presented their gift to the NHE in pursuit of encouraging students to select homebuilding and related fields as their life's work. Over the past six years, they have increased the amount of donated money to support more students continuing their education in the field.

Jessie Blote, Michael Duby, Kayla Chapman, Magdalena Lojewska, Anastasia Mylonas, Leopold Cortez, Christopher DeHaan, Victor Doroghian, Jonathan Elder, Brandon Harper, Ryan Hummel, Tyler Jones, Thomas McGrath, Brent Robertson, Rodolfo Rodriguez, Dylan Sheld, ShuCorra Walker, and Hollie Wunningham all were selected as recipients. Several of the recipients have received funds for the second year after demonstrating outstanding academic performance and dedication to the industry.
